Q: Should I use "As good as"? When describing an approximation, should I say: I'm as good as six, 10 dollars or I'm as good as $6, $10 dollars A: You should use "as good as". It is more common. The more formal phrase you suggested is appropriate if you are saying that the approximation is equally good. For example, let's say your phone starts to beep and
